

Modern Slavery Statement

We at Topcashback take our responsibilities under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 seriously and are committed to building and improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Organisation's structure

We are a provider of cashback services in the consumer money saving sector. We are the only company within our group company structure which has a turnover in excess of £36 million.

Our supply chain

Our supply chains include:

- Affiliate networks and agencies who track the transactions carried out by our members
- Merchants who advertise on our website
- Sub contractors who assist us in delivering communications to all our members

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Anti-slavery Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls by way of contractual clauses to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we will provide training to our staff.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Topcashback's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending December 2018.
